What you get when we provide you with financial services

Advice types and authorisations

Some of our staff may be limited to providing general advice only, or may be restricted to providing personal advice on selected products. If they are unable to provide you with the information or service you require, they will refer you to an appropriately authorised staff member.

Terms and conditions

For MyState Bank issued deposit and payment products, we’ll provide you with the relevant disclosure documents prior to your acquisition of the product. The disclosure documents we provide will include information about the terms and conditions, costs, benefits and features of the product. This information will help you decide whether or not the product is suitable for you, and therefore if you should acquire it. We recommend you carefully consider the information we provide prior to deciding to proceed with a product. We also recommend that you read the Target Market Determination (TMD) for the product(s) you may be interested in.

Product Disclosure Statements

For general insurance products and other products where we are not the product issuer, a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) will be provided to you, either before you acquire the product, or in any situation where we offer to provide or recommend a particular product to you. The PDS will contain information about that particular product, including the terms and conditions, costs, benefits and features. This information will help you decide whether or not the product is suitable for you, and therefore if you should acquire it. Again, we recommend you carefully consider this information prior to deciding to proceed with a product.

Our business relationships, associated commissions and incentives

Commissions and who we’re acting for

Unless otherwise stated, we act on our own behalf at all times when providing the financial products and services referred to in this FSG.

CGU Insurance

We are an intermediary for Insurance Australia Limited, trading as CGU Insurance (CGU), an issuer of general insurance products. In arranging insurance with CGU, we do not accept any liability for, or guarantee benefits in respect of products. In arranging any insurance with CGU, we’re acting for CGU, not you.
We receive commission on CGU Insurance products as a percentage, ranging from 5% to 20% of the premium paid for every policy excluding Travel Insurance. For Travel Insurance, a commission of 25% of the premium paid is received.

CGU may also provide us with an allowance to assist with the cost of promotional campaigns, and other payments based on agreed investments. These include, but not limited to, digital improvements, growth in the number of insured customers and/or growth in profitability.

Convera

We act under a Service Agreement with Convera Australia Pty Ltd (ACN 150 129 749; AFSL 404092) (Convera) to assist it in fulfilling certain foreign exchange and payment services.

We receive a commission of 20% of the margin revenue and transaction fees charged in relation to each telegraphic transfer (outbound and inward) and foreign cheque conversions.

Plenti

We act under a referrer agreement with Plenti RE Limited (ABN 57 166 646 635).

As such, we receive a commission where a customer draws down on a Plenti car or personal loan. For car loans the commission is $550 ex GST and for personal loans the commission is $450 ex GST.

Association

We’re an Associate Member of the BPAY Scheme, and a Sponsored Member of Visa International.

Fees, charges and incentives

MyState Bank issued products

The fees and charges relating to our deposit and payment products are detailed in our Fees and Charges for Deposit Accounts.

MyState Bank employee incentives, payments and commissions

Our salaried employees are representatives of MyState Bank Limited. We may provide cash bonuses or other incentives to our employees, depending on employee and company performance, or on the sale of our business partners’ products.

Complaints and feedback

We take your feedback seriously and aim to provide simple, easy to use and trustworthy services to our customers. We see your complaint or feedback as an opportunity to improve the way we do things.

How can I lodge a complaint?

You can advise us of your complaint or provide feedback by:

- Using the online form at mystate.com.au;
- emailing us at mycomplaint@mystate.com.au;
- calling us – 138 001 (between 8.00am and 6.00pm Monday to Friday and 9.00am to 1.00pm on Saturdays, except on public holidays);
- visiting your local branch; or
- writing to us at Complaints & Feedback, GPO Box 1274, Hobart Tasmania 7001.

What should my complaint include?

So that we can resolve your complaint as quickly as possible, it is important that you provide us with as much information as possible. This includes details such as:

- your customer number, name and details of preferred contact method;
- complaint or feedback information – what is your complaint or feedback about and when did it happen; and
- resolution – how would you like the matter resolved.

What are the options available if I need more help?

Our team can assist you with Translator Interpreter Services (TIS) if you speak limited English, or to use the National Relay Service if you have difficulties with hearing.

You may wish to contact a financial counsellor for free, independent advice about your situation. The National Debt Helpline website (ndh.org.au) has easy to use, step-by-step guides on how to tackle debts. You can also call the National Debt Helpline on 1800 007 007 to talk to a financial counsellor.

What are the response timeframes?

We will try our best to resolve the complaint for you straight away, and in most cases we can.

If we can’t we will:

- acknowledge that we’ve received your complaint within 24 hours or one business day;
- keep you up to date on our investigation and progress;
- provide you with final resolution within 30 days - if not, we will inform you of the reasons for delay and when we expect to resolve;
- if your complaint relates to credit involving default notices or financial hardship, we will provide you with a final resolution within 21 days.

What if my complaint isn’t resolved to my satisfaction?

If you’re not satisfied with the outcome provided to you, the first step is to request the complaint be escalated to a manager of the department you’ve been speaking with.

In the event you are not satisfied with the Manager’s response, you have a few more options as outlined below.

Senior Manager Review

You can request for your complaint to be escalated to a Senior Manager who will review your complaint outcome.

Senior Manager Review

Phone: 138 001

Email: mycomplaint@mystate.com.au, addressed to the Senior Manager

Post: Senior Manager Complaint Review, GPO Box 1274, Hobart TAS 7001
Customer Advocate

You can request for your complaint to be escalated to our Customer Advocate. The Customer Advocate while not independent, is impartial and focuses on achieving a fair outcome for our customers. Our Customer Advocate will review your complaint outcome to make sure that your complaint was handled fairly.

Customer Advocate Review
- Phone: 138 001
- Email: customeradvocate@mystate.com.au
- Post: Customer Advocate, GPO Box 1274, Hobart TAS 7001

Please allow us the opportunity to resolve your complaint through our internal complaint management process, as detailed above, prior to escalating through any other channels.
